

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW YEAR, NEW LIES

January 15th, 2009 - London - The glamorous new rock act 51/50s from Reading, UK will release the first digital single Lies from their upcoming debut album Dangerous State of Mind. The single will be available worldwide on Amazon, iTunes and other online music stores on January 26th.

Lies is produced by Matt Hyde, who has worked with a variety of breakthrough artists such as The Subways, Ash and The Glitterati.

The past two years have seen 51/50s tour extensively all over the UK as well as festivals across Europe. They are one of a select few bands who have been financed through slicethepie.com and will release their debut album on their own record label New Vibe Records in the second quarter of 2009. Dates will be announced later for an extensive UK and European tour in 2009.

51/50s are an energetic old-fashioned rock 'n' roll band dedicated to having a good time and creating catchy sing-along-able tracks. As Zane Lowe from Radio 1 (UK) puts it: "This is true, honest, British Rock'n'Roll!"

<http://5150smusic.com>.

<http://www.myspace.com/5150smusic>.

For more information, promo requests or to set up an interview, please contact:

Niklas Rämö

Not Evil Music

+358 40 772 6551

notevilmusic@notevilmusic.com

<http://notevilmusic.com>

###